

Botond SZE BENY
Secretary General of PostEurop

Botond Szebeny is the Secretary General of PostEurop (Association of European Public Postal Operators) and is responsible for co-ordinating the activities of the Association implemented in various fields of activities, being regulations, operations, social responsibility and market as well as leading the Headquarters of the Association located in Brussels.

Prior to joining PostEurop in 2009 in Brussels, Botond had been Executive Director of International Business and a member of the Executive Committee at Magyar Posta.

During that time, he served on the Management Board of PostEurop with the responsibility of chairing the European Affairs Committee of the Association. He has also lead various initiatives including the Universal Postal Union's Financial Committee and participated directly in the preparation of the new EU postal directive as postal expert of EU's European Economic & Social Committee.

He is currently member of the Management Board of the Europe-wide Print Power initiative.

Botond is also a regular speaker at international conferences and author of numerous publications. Besides Hungarian, he speaks fluent English, German, Romanian and good French.

Born in Brasov, Romania. Botond has a Degree in Economics from Budapest University of Economics as well as a Degree in Law from Eötvös Loránd University Budapest, Faculty of Law.