2019 Online Competition	National Birds	 The postage stamp depicts the barn swallow against the background of floral ornaments.	 Haypost C.J.S.C. Armenia
2019 Jury Competition	National Birds	 This small, orange-brown social bird with a very long stepped tail measures 16–17 cm from the tip of its beak to the end of its tail. It lives in thick stands of reeds, where it is most frequently observed in low flight, beating its short wings rapidly. It likes to perch in the tops of reeds, particularly in the early morning and in autumn. Its diet consists of insects and seeds. It builds a bowl-shaped nest near the ground in reeds that bend over water. It lays five to seven white spotted eggs and has two to three broods a year. Its first confirmed nesting in Slovenia was in the Ormož Lagoons Nature Reserve in 2017.	 Pošta Slovenije, d.o.o. Slovenia
